LIVERPOOL BOY VICTIM; EIGHT DIE IN STATE

Deaths from Traffic Will Mount to Over Fifty; Reports Show

PEDESTRIANS LOSE LIVES IN MISHAPS

Cyclist Crashes Into Auto; Children Among Those Listed As Dead

But Liverpool, O., May 6.—Willis Palmer, 8, died here today from a fractured skull, received several days earlier when he was struck by a car and run motorist.

Two accidents, which claimed more than 50 lives in other states, over the week-end, resulted in the deaths of at least eight Ohioans, according to a checkup made today.

Three persons were killed when a train struck their auto at an Ashland county crossing Saturday night. They are Grover C. Lockhart, 45, a Highland county farmer, his wife, Edna, 45, and their seven-year-old daughter, Dora.

Child Killed

Keith Wiedel, 7, was killed when he was struck by an auto near Cassa, Erie county.

A similar fate overtook Charles Lane, 69, at Cincinnati.

Ernest Hubacker, 35, Wayne county farmer, was killed when his car was struck by a train at Burton, Ky.

Herbert Hartwig, 29, was killed at Sandusky when the automobile he was riding struck an automobile.

Allen Collins, 26, met instant death last night when he lost control of his auto and it plunged into a river near Ironton.

Arrests May Follow Driving Without Registry Data Handy

Because of numerous arrests for not having their registration cards in their possession while driving in Pennsylvania, Chief of Police Thompson requests the local "AAA" Club to ask motorists to carry their registration and membership cards in their cars at all times.

"The Ohio laws do not require the owner to carry this card but it is a safe practice as it may save much time and inconvenience if officials stop you and are in doubt as to the ownership of the car," says Thompson. "With the large number of cars being stolen daily, all motorists should carry their bills of sale, license certificates, membership cards and bill book cards in cars at all times."

It is essential that you have these in your possession when traveling in other states. The officials are perfectly within their rights to stop any motorist who does not have a registration card while traveling in the majority of the states."

Several instances have been recorded where Salem motorists have been held until identification has been made certain. "It is hoped that the motorists of the county will heed the warnings issued by Chief Thompson, states A. P. Morris, manager of the Columbiana County Motor club.

CIGARET PERMITS TO EXPIRE SOON

Heavy Fine Follows Failure To Get New Permits From Auditor; Explains Laws

Lisbon, May 6.—Old cigarette licenses expire May 27, it was announced today by County Auditor Elmer E. Walker, and fines for selling the "togs" without a license is $100.

There are about 250 retail distributors of cigarettes in Columbiana county and four wholesale distributors. One of a retail cigarette license is $50 and that for wholesalers is $100.

This law also provides that all licensees must keep their license posted in a conspicuous place, together with a copy of section 12965 of the general code, which provided a penalty for furnishing any one under the age of 18 years with a cigarette, cigar wrapper, or substitute, or sell a cigar or tobacco to one under the age of 18 years. The penalty for a violation of this section of the law is a fine of not less than $25 or more than $100 and costs, or not less than two days nor more than 30 days in the county jail for each offense.

CANADIAN RAILROAD INSTALLS TELEPHONE ABOARD FAST TRAIN

Long Distance Service To Be Available To All Passengers On Transcontinental Trains In Near Future; Broadcast Radio

BY JAMES L. KILGALLAN
Toronto, Ont., May 6.—Telephoning from a fast-moving railroad train having been demonstrated as practicable, officials of the Canadian National Railways today began working on plans to install the service on its system and provide the traveling public with this new and revolutionary service.

Ultimately, it is expected, all trans-continental trains in the United States and Canada will be equipped for long distance telephoning.

The 40 newspapermen and railroad executives who yesterday afternoon witnessed the demonstration of telephoning from a train today pronounced the test a distinct success.

The train from which the telephoning was done was traveling about 30 miles an hour at the time and a connection was quickly made with the main office of the Canadian National Railways at Toronto to 17 miles away.

W. D. Robb, vice president of the Canadian National Railways, inaugurated the service. After conversing a few minutes with his office in Toronto, he turned the telephone over to the International News Service correspondent.

1400 PATIENTS FLEE BLAZE IN BIG HOSPITAL

Firemen Overcome Fighting Blaze; Second Starts Later

INSTITUTION MAY BE TOTAL LOSS

Mentally afflicted Patients Suffer From Shock; Scantily Attired

Morris Plains, N. J., May 6.—Fourteen hundred patients of the New Jersey state hospital at Greystone park, near here, were forced to flee their beds in scanty nightclothing early today when fire broke out on the fourth floor of the five-story main brick building of the hospital.

Three fire departments from adjacent towns responded to calls for aid and withdrew at 2:15 a. m., when the blaze was thought under control.

Later in the morning, however, the smoldering embers of the blaze, whipped by a rising wind, burst into flame and calls for aid were again sent out. At last reports, the fire was still burning and had eaten its way through the rear of the building where it was threatening the main portions of the institution.

Although none of the inmates of the hospital, an institution for the care of the mentally afflicted, was burned, several suffered from shock and were treated by hospital physicians.

Three firemen were overcome by the dense smoke that billowed around the building but were quickly revived.

Damage of the first fire was put at $100,000.

SPORTSWOMAN'S INJURIES FATAL

Thrown from Horse As Truck Driver Scares Animal

Columbus, O., May 6.—Miss Geraldine Lewis, who was to have celebrated her 21st birthday in a few days and who was regarded as one of the most expert horsewomen in Columbus riding circles, lies dead here today from injuries received when she was thrown from her polo pony after it was being ridden by a truck driver, whose driver, with a wave of the arms, yelled "ride 'em cowboy!" to the young woman.

Miss Lewis, a member of a prominent east side family, was riding with Miss Jacqueline Cowley, daughter of Maj. A. D. Cowley of Fort Hayes army barracks here.

She won the women's tennis championship at Ohio State university in both singles and doubles in 1926, was a member of the girls' basketball team at East high school prior to her graduation, and was interested in all out-of-door sports.

HEAVY TRAFFIC FLOWS THROUGH SALEM SUNDAY

Fifteen Autoists Tagged By Policemen Over Week-End

VIOLATIONS NOT REPORTED SERIOUS

Left Turns Draw Tickets; Speeding Charge Also Is Filed

Fifteen automobiles were tagged for violations of city traffic ordinances by Salem patrolmen over the weekend, during one of the heaviest traffic congestions seen in the city this year.

Machines during daylight hours Sunday crowded Main st. from its east intersection at Garfield and Lincoln, to the west intersection at Depot and Ellsworth. Patrolman Ralph Stoffer reported today. None of the violations, he reports, were of serious nature, despite the steady stream of cars passing through the city for 12 hours.

No accidents were reported at city hall today. There were several minor collisions at traffic lights on Main st., but none were brought to attention of the city traffic officer.

Nine motorists were given tags Saturday night for parking on South Lundy st. and are to appear in Mayor Phil Hiddleston's court today. Other violations were parking without lights, double parking, left turns at Penn and Chestnut and careless driving.

O. H. Myrland, East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving, and paid a fine of $5 and costs in Hiddleston's court this morning. He was charged by Patrolman Stoffer with failing to heed a police order and driving carelessly, the former charge being dropped.

O. G. Dowdy, Salem, charged with making a left turn at Chestnut, forfeited bond of $10.00. Carl DeLuce, Youngstown, alleged to have been speeding out McKinley ave. last night, also forfeited $10.00 bond.

"MISSING" YOUTH MYSTERY CLEAR

Marvin Rife Now Member Of Marine Corps In North Carolina

Wooster, O., May 6.—Probably feeling that the U. S. Marines held more romance than college books, Marvin Rife, 17, "missing" Wooster college student, was in that branch of the government service today, according to word received here.

Rife, native of Marion, Ohio, "disappeared" a week ago last Saturday when he was reported enroute from Pittsburgh to Wooster. The youth had been visiting friends in the Pennsylvania city and left there about 5 p. m. April 27.

When he failed to show up for his classes last Monday, a search was organized. No results were obtained and the hunt for the boy was intensified after three days, when the belief was expressed by authorities that he had met with foul play while hitch-hiking from Pittsburgh to Wooster.

All fears proved groundless, however, for word has been received here that Rife is a recruit in the marines, and, at present, is stationed at the marine base in North Carolina.

Rife was a sophomore in the college.

FORMER COLLEGE PRESIDENT DEAD

Dr. Albert Burdall Riker, 70, Dies In Columbus; Served Mt. Union From 1898 to 1908

Columbus, May 6.—Funeral services were held here today for Dr. Albert Burdall Riker, 70, former president of Mt. Union college from 1898 to 1908.

News of his death came as a shock to officials of Mt. Union college. Dr. Riker was present at the recent Mt. Union alumni banquet at Columbus. He was one of the speakers at the commencement exercises of the college in 1927.

Dr. Riker succeeded Dr. T. P. Marsh as president of Mt. Union college in 1898. He was the third president of Mt. Union college. He came to Alliance institution at a time when it was without endowment but in spite of lack of funds maintained one of the strongest corps of teachers in the country. He instituted the first real attempt to secure an endowment fund laying the foundation for the work carried out by his successor Dr. W. H. McMaster.

Washington Society Again All Agog Over Dolly Gann Status

Washington, May 6.—The capital's social warfare over the seating precedence at formal dinners did not end with solemn decision of the diplomatic corps that Mrs. "Dolly" Gann, half-sister of Vice-President Curtis, was entitled to rank as the "second lady" on such occasions.

Those who thought it did just don't know their Washington.

The buzzing around the tea tables and in the drawing rooms began anew today and concerned a dinner given by the Guene Meyers, who have long been prominent in capital society.

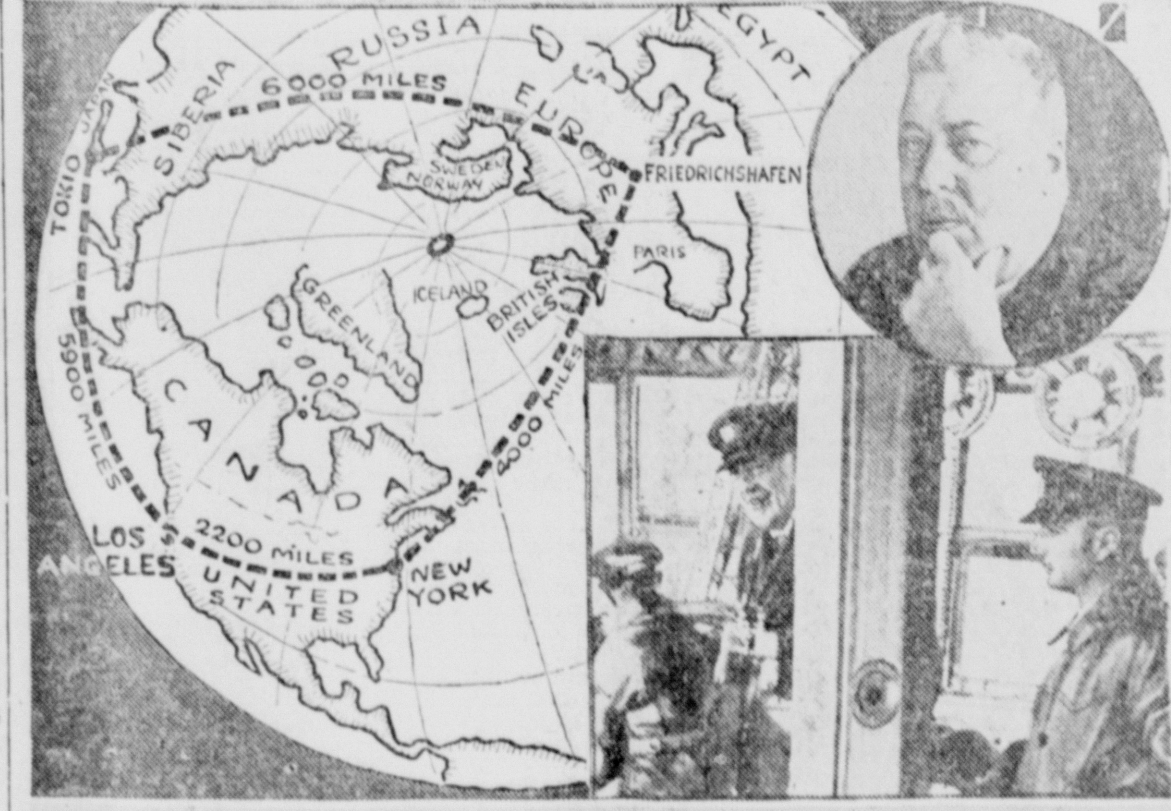

To this dinner, so the story goes, were invited the Ganns and the speaker and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who was Alice Roosevelt.

Upon learning that Mrs. Gann was to be present and seated as the ranking lady, Mrs. Longworth is said to have sent her regrets at the last moment. These regrets, it is said, were followed by Mrs. Gann's regrets when she was apprised that Mrs. Longworth had declined. So neither of them attended.

GENERAL WORK ON PROJECT TO START AT ONCE

Baseball, Football Fields To Benefit, According To Plans

PLAYGROUNDS WILL GET NEW EQUIPMENT

Picnic Grounds Proving Popular; Demand Is Becoming Great

Plans for improvement of Centennial park as a playground and recreation center in Salem were announced today by Frank L. Rollins, city park commissioner, following a meeting of the park commission, composed of R. F. White, H. H. Sharp and Rollins at the park Saturday afternoon.

Complete grading of the baseball and football field, installation of a drinking fountain at the park's tennis courts, slaying of driveways, and improvement of rest rooms were the principal projects mentioned by Rollins on the year's improvement schedule.

$1,800 Allotted For Work

The commission has been allotted $1,800 in the city budget for various improvement work Rollins stated and will spend this amount in a short time. Additional funds for other work are not being raised by donations of factories and organizations.

Work on scraping the baseball diamond was due to have been completed last week, but due to the delay caused by inclement weather, it was postponed until this week. County trustees have agreed to scrape the diamond and assist in its improvement.

Both infield and outfield will be graded, according to the commission's plan, if sufficient funds are raised. The commission has agreed to contribute $50 to the grading fund, the Salem China company, W. H. Mullins Manufacturing corporation, and other industrial concerns having stated they will donate a similar amount.

The Kiwanis club, which last year installed several swings and saws to the playground, will add to this equipment this summer. More swings have already been received, and these will be erected at the first sign of continental warm weather.

Accommodations for electricity have been provided at the picnic grounds by the Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church, and also (Continued on Page 4)

Berlin, N. H., May 6.—Workers here today were clearing the debris left in the wake of a Sunday afternoon gale, which, in a few minutes, reached cyclonic proportions and did close to $400,000 damage in a half mile area in the business district.

Meanwhile, in the town of Colebrook, just recovering from the shock of a half-million dollar flood resulting from a broken dam, new guards replaced the weary night watchers who had been posted along Mohawk river waiting for the first sign of a new rise of the turbulent waters.

Fire broke out in Berlin, adding to the terror, but was quickly extinguished. No one was killed or injured.

FOR SAFETY OF LIFE AT SEA

The comprehensive sea safety code offered by the American delegation to the "International Conference by the Safety of Life at Sea," which opened its sessions in London last week, seemingly has made a good impression upon that gathering. Reception by the delegates possibly being the more favorable for the reason that in many respects it runs very much along the lines of the code submitted by the British delegation. That the nautical experts of two great nations, working for many months as two separate bodies, should arrive at practically the same conclusions and make very much the same recommendations rather goes to prove the worth of the principles and ideas advocated by them. The conference may radically get away from some of the suggestions of both the American and British codes, but, all things even, the probabilities are that the code finally adopted will be much along the lines common to the two.

The American proposals in the way of ship construction, fire protection and life-saving devices and appliances are held to constitute notable advances over the rules adopted by the conference in 1914 and conform to President Hoover's suggestions in his letter of instruction to the American delegation looking to the highest practical safety standards.

Drastic changes are proposed regarding lifeboats. Not only does the new code cover the present provision of lifeboats for all, but it provides for lifeboats for not less than 25 per cent of all aboard in addition. Vessels carrying 60 or more passengers must have one motor lifeboat. Where more than 800 are carried there must be two. Each motor lifeboat must have ample protection against rain and carry wireless sending and receiving apparatus capable of covering a radius of fifty miles.

For rescue work in rough weather in which the use of lifeboats is impossible, vessels must carry a gun capable of throwing a line at least 1,490 feet—practically a quarter of a land mile—by means of which a line may be shot to or from a receiving vessel by which a cable may be drawn to connect the two and permit of the operation of a breeches buoy. Smaller and lighter life-jackets for children must be provided. In addition to the present provision for lighting lifeboats aboard, there must be provision for lighting the sea about the vessel by flood-lights that boats may not be lowered in inky darkness and their occupants drowned in case of some mishap. Easier, safer and more easily worked devices for lowering lifeboats must also be provided.

Fire alarm signals must be such as to be audible in every sleeping compartment, and there must be provision for two powerful streams of water for each compartment holding cargo.

It is insisted by the American delegation that every ship must be equipped with a radio compass to enable it to obtain bearings from direction-finding radio stations. It insists also on an international system of buoys and buoy lighting and it urges fog-horn blasts every minute, during a fog, instead of every two minutes as at present.

Another recommendation is for stability tests for all new passenger ships before they are put into commission. Had this rule obtained in the past, 110 lives probably would not have been sacrificed in the sinking of the Vestris. Still another provision is for shortening of watertight compartments to sixty feet "plus five per cent of a vessel's length," and still another is for increasing of the number of ships in international ice patrol in the North Atlantic from two to three.

There are many other recommendations, but these cover the chief suggestions by the American delegations and are in line with the most of the recommendations of the British.

The great liners of comparatively new construction are probably as nearly unsinkable as vessels can be built, but no vessel is unsinkable. This has been demonstrated time and again.

Thus there is demand that every possible practical device which is of use in time of emergency in the prevention of loss of life at sea shall be provided. The fact that such devices may never be needed, the American delegation insists, is no excuse for their absence in ships carrying passengers. If possible use for them is conceivable, they should be at hand. Nothing should be permitted to stand against the preservation of life in case of accident at sea.

What Others Say

THE FORD COMPANY IN 1928

The year-end balance-sheet of the Ford Motor company, as submitted under the Massachusetts law to that state's commissioner of corporations, is the source of official information about the course of the company's earnings. The statement for 1928, published yesterday, is of singular interest for the light it throws on financial results to date of Mr. Ford's remarkable experiment in altering his whole mechanical plant during 1927 to provide for a new model, and in suspending production for fully half a year while making the change, an immense loss of earnings was necessarily involved. A year ago the profit and loss surplus in the statement of December 31, 1927, showed decrease for that year of $42,780,000. Production was resumed at the beginning of 1928, though not on the old-time scale, but the output was known to have increased gradually from 1,500 cars per day in March to about 6,400 in December. The December figure considerably exceeded the best average daily achievement of the company's previous record, that of 1924, but it left in doubt the results for last year as a whole.

That point is settled by yesterday's balance-sheet for December 31, 1928, which reports further reduction in the company's surplus by no less a sum than $72,221,000. That is to say, conversion of the Ford plant into shape for production of the new Model A has thus far actually cost the company $115,000,000. It has reduced the surplus of the figure at which it must have stood in the middle of 1925. In an ordinary enterprise this would be considered a disastrous showing. But the Ford Motor company was not in the ordinary class; during its years of spectacular achievement between 1921 and 1927 the surplus had increased $515,000,000. It stood at $597,637,000 at the end of 1926, and stands now at $582,629,000.

Since the present year's output of new Ford cars, according to an estimate by the company itself last December, will equal the largest previous annual output, the surplus reported a year from now will have exceptional interest. The largest annual profit in its past history, derived from the twelve months ended with February, 1928, was $119,293,600. But the price of cars and the volume of production by competing companies were very different then. In particular, the field once all but monopolized by the Ford has subsequently been invaded by powerful and prosperous new producing plants, especially during the period of suspended Ford output. The question is further complicated by the two considerations which have thus far baffled every effort at prediction in that industry—where, if anywhere, will the "saturation point" be reached in the motorcar market as a whole, and what influence would be exerted by a change in speculative activities or trade prosperity?—New York Times, April 16.

THE SINCLAIR CASE

Harry Sinclair is a man of millions, whose operations in oil and his connection with the famous government oil scandals have for long attracted the attention of the civilized world. But Mr. Sinclair must go to prison for three months—unless the president sees fit to interpose a pardon.

Mr. Sinclair goes to prison because he refused to answer the questions of a senate investigating committee, in connection with the alleged oil scandals. He was cleared of the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government, though twice placed on trial, in the last trial being acquitted.

In this case, just what is justice probably is a matter for individual interpretation. He goes to prison for contempt alleged to have been committed five years ago. It is admitted that the questions asked by Sinclair by the Walsh committee have not proved of consequence in the oil scandal exposition. But the decision of the supreme court in his case appears to establish the right of government to proceed to almost any lengths by employment of a legislative committee in dealing with matters alleged to have been injurious to the government's best interests.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Stars Say

For Tuesday, May 7

A DAY of great opportunity and important operations is fore-shown by the interesting chain of planetary mutations. In employment, new undertakings, in finance and business generally, there are signs of expansion and promotion, but these may be somewhat negated by excessive zeal or impetuosity. With well-laid plans and calm management all should prosper. Personal affairs are graciously aspected.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of promotion, advancement and expansion either in employment, business or in new projects. But pursue all with cool judgment and self control. Personal affairs also thrive and give pleasure. A child born on this day may be excellently equipped for success in many directions, but it should be given training and discipline in self-control and even temper. It may be popular and loved.

COLD TOO OFTEN IS CAUSED BY NEGLECT

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

One of the most common of human afflictions is sore throat. Many persons cannot get wet feet or expose themselves to the weather without an attack.

I doubt exceedingly if climatic and weather conditions are tremendously important factors in the development of sore throat. There are other causes which must not be overlooked.

Nine times out of ten a careful study of the case will show some violation of the rules of hygiene. Lack of sleep, worry and overwork must be counted among the important causes.

I am surprised that more attention is not paid to the digestion and elimination.

It will be found in nine cases out of ten that the intestinal tract is not clean. It is difficult to say exactly how a sore throat could be traced to this particular cause. I must say, however, that my observation, covering a good many years, has caused me to conclude that sluggishness of the intestinal tract is usually an accompaniment of every sort of sore throat.

If this is true, it must follow as a matter of course that overeating, abuse of the stomach by the taking of rich foods, and all the other things that we know are capable of producing indigestion, may be the background of a cold. If you go away on a visit and your friends feed you everything under the sun, you are bound to suffer a reaction. A sore throat is merely one of the symptoms.

The veins that carry the blood from the lining membrane of the lower bowel run almost directly to the liver. They are a part of what we call the portal circulation. These large blood vessels go to the liver and that organ is supposed to filter out the bacteria and poisons which have developed in the intestinal tract. Under ordinary conditions the liver does its work effectively. But it cannot accomplish the impossible. If these poisonous things are there in too large a quantity, they escape into the general circulation of the blood. Then they are carried everywhere, of course.

Let us assume, then, that this state of affairs is present in the system. The person in question does a lot of talking; perhaps he makes a speech or two, or he smokes a lot—then what happens? There is enough irritation and congestion in the tonsils and other parts of the throat so that the bacteria and the products of bacterial action find a favorable place of attack. The next thing is a sore throat of some sort.

What are we going to do about it? The sensible thing is to clear out the intestinal tract by enemas or suitable medication. Then the diet should be restricted for a day or two. This procedure will guarantee that no further poisoning of the tissues shall take place.

Fresh air, sunlight, plenty of sleep in a well ventilated room, and restricted hours of labor will complete the cure. I am sure this will appeal to you as sensible advice.

The fact is that pain or discomfort is usually an evidence of abuse of the body. When we learn to live hygienic lives and to observe rules of sensible living, we will have fewer aches and pains. We really have no right to growl when we are uncomfortable because in most instances we are merely suffering the effects of our own misdeeds. Aches and pains are sent by Mother Nature as a reminder that we need to reform.

The many sufferers from torturing neuritis with its constant stabbing pain, will be interested in the remarkable case of Mrs. Cora Greenfield, who resides at 700 Third St., N. W., Canton. This condition is one of rheumatism's most painful forms, from which to get relief, poisonous waste which accumulates in the body here cause a condition which is most pitiful.

Mrs. Greenfield says that for the past four years she had been through such awful suffering that at times she hardly knew how she ever endured it. "My muscles just jabbed with pain as though daggers were stuck in me," she states. "Often the pain became so great it was simply torture. It just seemed to make a wreck out of me. My whole shoulder got so stiff, I couldn't raise my arm. I was always tired out, no pep to do anything. Headaches were a constant misery and it just seemed as though I was all worn out."

"Owa-Ton-Na did for me what no other medicine or treatment I ever tried succeeded in doing. The neu-ritis pain is practically gone and oh! what a relief it is to get away from constant torture. My appetite is wonderful and the food tastes as good and does not give me any trouble when I eat. I feel stronger in every way. My headaches are gone and once again I am beginning to get some enjoyment out of life."

Owa-Ton-Na is a non-alcoholic herbal preparation for kidney, liver and intestinal disorders, sold at Filding's, Dolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores in Salem.—Adv.

STUDENT PILOT HURT IN CRASH

Unlicensed Flier Carries Passengers; Other Not Seriously Hurt

Columbus, O., May 6.—A student pilot flying an unlicensed plane, "cracked up" at the edge of the Valley Crossing flying field, south of Columbus, yesterday and today the pilot was in a serious condition in a hospital here, while his passenger was recovering from less-serious hurts.

A V. Terry, 32, part owner and pilot of the ship, suffered a fractured skull and severe lacerations about the body. Oscar E. Bergsma, 29, his passenger, sustained a fractured arm and other minor injuries.

The plane's motor is thought to have stalled just after taking off from the field. It crashed from a height of about 100 feet. The plane was owned by the Sullivan ave. municipal airport field a short time ago, because it was unlicensed and was carrying passengers.

It was of the Waco-9 type. Terry held a student pilot's license.

REPAIR LEETONIA BLAST FURNACE

Leetonia, May 6.—The furnace of the Cherry Valley Iron works here has been blown out, and it is again to be placed in operation as soon as an improvement program has been completed, which will take probably 60 days.

Two small boilers in the engine room are to be replaced with larger ones and in addition the furnace is to be re-lined immediately. A number of old company houses have been razed for the purpose of giving the company a larger yard capacity. It is said that when the furnace is again placed in operation, its output will be materially increased.

During the time the furnace is idle, all employees will be kept active making repairs and extensions.

Sinclair Sentence Will Start Soon

New York, May 6.—The authorities in Washington know that Mr. Sinclair will make his appearance when he is wanted. The process there is rather slow and we are not sure whether he will be called Monday or Tuesday.

With this statement from Martin W. Littlejohn, chief of counsel for Harry P. Sinclair, millionaire oil producer and sportsman on record here, Sinclair today awaited word from the capital as to when he will begin serving his 90-day sentence.

Sinclair is reported to have spent the week-end at his country estate, settling up his affairs as he is not expected to return again to headquarters of the $500,000,000 Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation until after his sentence has been served.

Highwaymen Stab Victim; Fights Back

Cleveland, May 6.—Martin Donahue, 48, was in a hospital here today with two knife wounds in his chest, but his pocketbook is still in his possession and there is a would-be assassin somewhere in the city with a sore jaw. Donahue told police two men followed him last night and demanded his money. Donahue walked up a flight of seven steps and caught one of the two with a straight right to the jaw which sent him sailing off the porch but the other stabbed Donahue twice before he fled.

Mr. Vernon, O.—Mrs. Lizzie Burkholder, 44, was in a hospital here today after making her home at Mt. Liberty near here, and herself with knife wounds and setting it afire. The aged woman was dragged from the burning dwelling by her nurse, Mrs. Clara Fletcher.

SECONDARY ROADS TO BE IMPROVED DURING COMING TWO YEARS

Gasoline Tax To Play Part In Raising $79,700

Columbiana county will receive a total of approximately $65,300 in 1929 and $79,700 in 1930 for improvement of secondary roads, according to announcement of the Ohio Good Roads Federation.

The secondary roads of Ohio are known as the county highway systems, made up of the important roads of each county, (not including the state roads), and authorized by the Green law passed several years ago.

This information is part of a statement by the federation that is meant to clear up an apparent misunderstanding as to how the improvement of the secondary roads will be extended by reason of the amended gasoline tax law.

The total mileage of the 88 county highway systems is approximately 24,500 miles and consists of the most important local roads located in all the townships of the state and connecting all villages and community centers.

Green Law Effective

The Green law was not repealed by the general assembly as seems to have been given out, says the statement. In fact this law was made even more workable, by the passage of several amendments coordinating its provisions with general county highway law. Instead of an appropriation, however, by which the state might directly participate in the improvement of the secondary system of roads in any county as called for by the Green law, the amended gasoline tax law sets aside definite parts of the 2 cent tax for secondary road building, widening and reconstruction.

In other words, 5 per cent of the revenue from the 2 cent tax (which means 10 per cent of the additional 1 cent tax) is apportioned equally among the 88 counties for improvement (not maintenance or repair) of the county road system or secondary roads; 10 per cent of the 2 cent gas tax (or 20 per cent of the additional 1 cent tax) is apportioned equally among the 133 townships of the state for improvement (not maintenance or repair) of the county highways or secondary roads in the townships, or for improvement of township roads if all county roads are built, such work to be done under the supervision of the county surveyor.

NAVAL PROPOSAL NOW POSTPONED

Further Consideration Of Topic Delayed Until Next Autumn

Geneva, May 6.—Open discussion of the naval limitation proposals put forward here by Hugh Gibson in behalf of the United States was today postponed until autumn by the League of Nations Preparatory Disarmament commission.

In the meantime the naval situation will be studied by the governments of the big naval powers.

"The American proposals do not constitute a rigid plan to be accepted or rejected, but are merely suggestions," Mr. Gibson told the commission. "The theory of any naval plan that would be simple in its application is difficult. Although the United States suggests ascertaining the value of ships, their tonnage, caliber of the guns and their age, it appears that there are other factors that might be considered."

The motion to put off debate upon the American naval plan was made by M. Sato, of Japan and was seconded by Lord Cusheuden, of England, and Count Massigli, of France.

Mr. Gibson, who is the United States ambassador to Belgium as well as delegate to the commission meeting, and Maxim Litvinoff, of Soviet Russia, both of whom represent countries not members of the League, consented to the delay.

Mr. Gibson in acquiescing to the adjournment said:

"Although the United States is ready to discuss naval limitations, it understands that the governments desire time to reflect. Therefore, in view of the present favorable atmosphere the United States accepts the adjournment."

PROGRESSIVE DINNER PARTY

Misses Adele Treat, Alberta Youngling, Lois Clay and Martha Youngling, were associate hostesses at a lovely progressive dinner party Saturday night entertaining 16 girls of the senior class of the Salem High School. The hostesses also are members of the senior class.

One course of the dinner was served at each home and spring flowers and various pastel shades were used in the table decorations. The first course was served by Miss Treat and the guests were presented candles in holders to light their way to the other homes. Radio music furnished entertainment at each home.

RAMSEY-KREPPES.

Pink sweet peas and pansies were used in the decorations at a prettily appointed wedding at 7 p. m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Krepps, Depot st., when their son, Risty R. Krepps, was united in marriage with Miss Eva Philadelia Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ramsey, North Georgetown road.

The nuptials, read by Rev. C. P. Evans, pastor of the Christian church, were witnessed by about 30 relatives and friends.

The bride was gowned in a lovely pale blue georgette dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and baby breath. Miss Elva Krepps, maid of honor, wore a basque dress of white organdy and carried pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Zella Krepps and Miss Floris Baisley, were dressed in white organdy and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. Paul Baisley was the best man.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served at a table beautifully appointed in pink and white with a large wedding cake for the center piece.

Mr. Krepps is a graduate of the Salem High school, class of '26. He is employed by the Salem China company. The young people will make their home at 50 1/2 Ohio ave.

PLAYGROUND

most all Sundays of the coming summer have been engaged by picnickers.

Several other dates during the week remain open. Rollins states, and organizations planning to hold a picnic or meeting at the park should get in touch with him as soon as possible.

Complete Diamonds

If plans for the commission materialize, three baseball diamonds will be completed this summer, one for regulation hardball, and two for "mushball." City leagues have already been organized in each sport and with interest being at a high peak, the commission believed it necessitated the construction of more playing space, according to Rollins.

A backstop was built back of the diamond last week, poles being donated by the Bell Telephone company, and further plans will be made this week.

The laying of an additional tennis court was abandoned for this year, its construction interfering with the new baseball diamond. Each of the three courts are in excellent condition, and with the arrival of warm weather, the city will have an ideal play center, the commission predicts.

He requests that all interested in the contemplated improvements be at the park Wednesday evening, about 5:30.

"Before the commission goes ahead with grading of the entire field and other improvements, we want concrete evidence that they are wanted. Interested persons should all make it a point to get there Wednesday," he states.

POST-NUPITAL SHOWER.

Forty friends of Mrs. Floyd Moul, before her recent marriage, Miss Freda Schuster, complimented her with a miscellaneous shower Sunday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Steve Schuster, Newgarden street. The hours were spent sociably with music and a lunch was served. The honoree received many gifts for her new home.

Miss Rebecca Davis, who has been engaged in demonstration work in the main dining room in the Stevens hotel, Chicago, arrived here Saturday night to spend the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis, East High Street. She was accompanied home by her fiancé, Arthur Jerome Travis, Jr., of Chicago. Miss Davis' marriage will be an event of Saturday night at the Church of Our Saviour, McKinley ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whinnery Lease and son, Donald, have returned from a motor trip to Oconto, Wis. They were accompanied home by Rev. Charles E. Lease, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Oconto. Rev. Lease has been in a hospital for a month. He will spend several weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lease, Damascus road.

MISSIONARY IN LECTURE HERE

First Friends Church Is Scene of Interesting Picture-Talk

Miss Clara Ford, of Cleveland, teacher in the Cleveland Bible institute, gave an impressive talk on "If Jesus Christ Is Left Out of Your Life." Sunday night at the First Friends church.

Miss Ford gave Isaiah's prophecy of Jesus Christ, the scripture relating to Christ's death on the cross and a description of Heaven as given by John in the book of Revelation. She illustrated it with three pictures. The first was a lamb at a door, seeking admission; the second showed an abyss, on either side "life and death," bridged by the Cross of Christ; and the last one was a picture of the "Eternal City" from which "flows the stream of life."

During the service Miss Ford was assisted by Mrs. Williamson, instructor of music in the Cleveland Bible school, and Miss Gertrude Cook, employed at the office in the school, who sang solos and duets appropriate to the occasion.

These special workers were here for a missionary conference held at this church over the weekend.

Miss Nellie Lewis, of Salem, a student at the Cleveland Bible institute, had part in the morning service. Miss Lewis is preparing for missionary work in India and at this service told of God's call to her for this work. Miss Lewis is former public school nurse and well known in Salem.

This church has started a fund, which will be used to send Miss Lewis to India.

New Waterford Asks For School Bids

New Waterford, May 6.—The board of education at New Waterford is again advertising for bids for the erection of an addition to its school, proposals to be opened at noon May 17. Recently the board was enjoined in common pleas court from entering into a contract with a low bidder, whose proposal was received and opened after the advertised time.

The former bid of the Madden Lumber & Construction Co., of East Palestine was the lowest of the two bids opened before, but the court refrained from compelling the board of education to award the bid to this company an account of the bid opened in an irregular way was $600 lower than the Madden proposal.

Takes Own Life

Gallipolis, O., May 6.—Believed to have taken his own life on account of ill health, the body of J. B. Alford, farmer, had today been found in a stream at his home near Point Pleasant, W. Va., across the Ohio river from here.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Arnold Carl Westphal, Pastor
"Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed, lest he fall." The period from May first to September 15th always reveals a waning attendance at all services of the church. It is the golden harvest season for the devil. The highways, the fresh air, the cool lakes, Gods great nature, these demand the attention, and divert the course. You can worship God at any of these places, but do you. Is it worship that calls you, or pleasure? There are some things that must be done on the Lord's day, and that during the hours of worship, and in the house of worship, and with other worshippers. When we were dead in sin, Christ quickened us, and remembers our sins and iniquities against us no more. The trouble with us is that Christ has forgotten our past sins, but we remember them, and still seem to cling to the dead things of the world. We have not obeyed the second injunction. "Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate." Pollution of the world has entered the church with such marked degree that the unsaved do not hesitate to sing in the choir, or teach Sunday school classes and the saved do not hesitate to dabble in the very things they once denied, if God would but give them peace of soul. Making the house of prayer a den of thieves could easily be written over many of our churches, in that they have been robbed of the purpose for which they have been set.

REFUSES DRINK; WOUNDS FATAL

Denies Liquor To Stranger Who Pulls Gun and Opens Fire; Police Have Name

Lorain, O., May 6.—Refusing to buy a chance acquaintance a drink last night, Charles Vasquez, 40, his life came last night.

Observers told police that Vasquez was leaving a dance hall when the other man accosted him and asked that he buy a drink.

"It seems to me you've had enough to drink already," Vasquez is said to have replied, whereupon the second man drew a pistol and shot him.

Vasquez died later in a hospital. The slayer fled but police say they have his name and description.

Gopher Hunt Proves Very Expensive

Menominee, Mich., May 6.—Lawrence Zaremba and neighbors going for a gopher saw the gopher go for a hole under Lawrence's home.

They started a fire to smoke out the gopher. The house ignited and everybody had to go for water buckets. The house burned down, costing $5,500 and one gopher.

TRAIN-PHONE

Mr. Robb not only telephoned from the train but also broadcast over the radio from the train while it was traveling at a fairly high speed. He was connected with the company's radio station in Toronto and almost immediately his words came back over the radio aboard the train. It was a feature unique in the history of radio development.

Talk To Toronto

It was 3:55 p. m. when Mr. Robb stood at the corner of a Pullman car, lifted up the receiver of a Continental telephone and said he wished to talk to his office in Toronto in less than a minute the connection was established.

"Hello, is that you, Mr. Barber?" asked Robb.

The reply was in the affirmative. Then Mr. Robb said: "I hear you very well. I want to take this occasion to congratulate all the men who made this achievement possible."

And then, one by one, the news-papers talked to Toronto. The train clicking over the rails at a 30-mph-an-hour speed. Yet this in no way interfered with conversation back and forth. The voice at the other end was as clear and audible as a voice ordinarily is during a local call.

SPECIAL TERM LOOMS FOR JURY

Docket From April Work of Grand Jury Nearly Cleared

Lisbon, May 6.—Out of 14 indictments returned by the April grand jury against 17 men and women, 11 have already entered pleas of guilty and following jury trials the state has obtained two convictions. Only two cases remain to be tried, and two against whom secret indictments were returned have not been apprehended.

These who are to be tried are Samuel Vogelhuber of Salem, charged with the possession of implements designed for the manufacturing of liquor, third offense, and Othmar H. Miller formerly of Wells-ville but now of Charleston, W. Va., indicted for non support.

Should the situation warrant, it may follow that Prosecuting Attorney John E. Baucknecht will suggest to the court that a special grand jury be called early in June. This special jury would then investigate charges against those who have recently been bound over from lower courts and who may be bound over during the remainder of the month. By this plan all cases will be cleared before the summer court recess.

Divorce Is Sought

Harry G. Ring, 23, employed as a wire drawer, and residing with Manuel Salsberry, Center ave., Beechwood, East Liverpool, has been sued for divorce by his wife Eva R. Ring, whom he married at New Cumberland, W. Va., June 2, last year. P. V. Mackall of East Liverpool is counsel for the plaintiff.

The petition charges Ring with gross neglect of duty in that he never provided a home for his wife, and also extreme cruelty. Under the latter charge it is set up that Ring broke his wife's jaw February 28 and that he has beat her until her body was black and blue. In addition to a decree the plaintiff asks for alimony and attorney fees.

HOME WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

Occupants of House Not At Home At Time of Blast; Fire Hinders Investigation's Work

Cleveland, May 6.—Police here were attempting today to determine the source of a mysterious explosion which wrecked a home in Brooklyn Village just before midnight last night, breaking window panes and rocking other houses in the vicinity.

Edward Scalzitte, his wife and three children, occupants of the house, were coming home from a bridge party when the explosion occurred. Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Franko, residents of the second floor, were also away, the husband visiting his wife who is in a hospital.

No explanation for the blast could be learned. Scalzitte said he discovered someone had let the air out of the four tires of his automobile when he started home. The house, a 10 room structure, was torn from its foundation and gutted by fire. The fire hampered police in their efforts to learn what sort of an explosive caused the blast.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Why potato salad is known as salad is a mystery, because it is usually served without lettuce. But it's the ubiquitous American food. It appears on all tables occasionally, restaurants usually have it on hand, and no delicatessen or summer picnic could flourish without it.

Potato salad should be kept attractive in appearance—which is not easy. If potatoes are overcooked, or badly cut, the salad is likely to degenerate into mushy and rather unappetizing dish. For this reason the potatoes should be cooked only until tender, then the water drained off and cooking continued for a moment or so until excess moisture has disappeared. Potatoes should be tender but dry.

Cut carefully into half inch cubes. If a French dressing is used, stir it over the potatoes while they are still hot. If a mayonnaise or cream dressing is used, let the potatoes get cold before cutting, and mix them. Any potato salad is improved by the addition of other cold cooked vegetables—such as peas, carrots, string beans, Nut butts—these discolored the whole salad.

Potato Salad, French Dressing
 3 cups hot boiled potatoes, cut in cubes.
 9 tablespoons oil
 3 tablespoons vinegar
 1 small onion chopped
 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/4 teaspoon celery seed (if you like it).

Mound the potatoes in a large serving bowl. Mix the above ingredients and pour over the potatoes, stirring carefully so that they are well covered with the mixture, but do not break the potatoes.

Cream Potato Salad
 3 cups cooked potatoes, in cubes, cold.
 1 cup heavy sweet cream
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 1 tablespoon grated onion
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Mix the potatoes with the onion, parsley, salt and pepper and keep cold. Just before serving whip the cream and vinegar and fold into the potatoes.

There is a potato salad which is really a salad, being served on lettuce leaves, but instead of cutting the potatoes, they are mashed:

Potato Balls Salad
 1 cup mashed potatoes
 1/2 teaspoon onion juice
 1 teaspoon chopped parsley
 2 tablespoons cream
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Form the potatoes into little balls, place on lettuce leaves and cover with mayonnaise. Some sliced radishes mixed with this salad add to the flavor.

Chicken and Potato Salad
 2 cups of cooked potatoes, cold
 1 cup of cooked chicken
 1 cup of raw celery
 1 apple
 Mayonnaise dressing.

The chicken, potatoes and apple are cut into 1/2 inch cubes, and the celery as nearly as possible to the same size, so that the salad has a White? Not these clothes!

There was plenty of soap. The clothes were scrubbed thoroughly, and rinsed. But the water was hard. The soap mixed with the hard water, and formed a dirty ring around the basin, around the scum got into the fabric of the clothes. That's why the clothes weren't clean.

But they can be clean. How? By washing them in soft water. And how can hard water be made soft? By adding Melo. The water is now a wonderful cleaner, with or without soap, and the soap much more effective. Get a can today at your grocer's.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, May 6—Tailleurs were probably never more trim, which really means that the good old-fashioned tailored suit being worn this spring is really tailored. And in spite of the general trend toward frills and femininity, there are short jackets and almost equally straight skirts with concealed pleats.

Up to the present moment, few skirts cut "en forme" or in circular shape, have appeared at the dressmakers. The jackets are generally single breasted, fastened with one button at the waist, and the skirts with inverted pleats at the sides or with a series of narrow box-pleats in the middle of the front.

A slight novelty is a navy-blue reffer jacket fastened with only one nickel button, which is worn with a skirt of plain gray woolen material with a narrow strip of the blue down one side.

Many suits for spring are in English checked woolsens, tweeds and similar materials, with skirts more or less pleated and jackets a tiny bit loose across the shoulders and pinched in at the waistline.

Double-breasted waistcoats of white or deep cream-colored moire are worn with some of the trousers and a long straight tunic in bright striped taffeta or crepe de Chine is seen with some of them. It is a toss-up as to what will be the most popular with the spring tailleur, the old-time favorite fox scarf, or the brightly-colored crepe de Chine one which comes in all manner of mixtures.

LEETONIA

Leetonia was visited by one of the hardest rain storms on Thursday that had been known here for several years. The rain started at about 10:30 a. m. and continued until almost 6 p. m. During the afternoon there were three distinct thunder storms with no let-up of the rain which fell in sheets the entire afternoon.

Mrs. E. P. Stonebraker made a charming hostess on Thursday afternoon when she entertained the Thursday Reading club in her home on East Columbia st.

Miss Bertha Adam was unable to be present and her paper will be given at the next meeting. A paper "Heroes of History" prepared by Mrs. Elmer Harrold, who is in California, was read by Mrs. P. R. Rauch.

Mrs. Stonebraker gave a group of five musical selections on the piano. Mrs. Paul H. Beaver also gave a group of piano solos. This number was brought over from the meeting of April 4 owing to the illness of Mrs. Beaver at that time. The roll call was answered by "Noted Women of Ohio."

The next meeting, May 16, will be held in the home of Mrs. Ethel Patterson.

Mrs. Ray Miller entertained the Independence club on Thursday evening in her home on Columbia st. The evening was enjoyed in needlework with dainty refreshments served by the hostess assisted by her two daughters, the Misses Hildred and Rhea Miller, added to the pleasure of the club members.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heintz were in Minerva on Wednesday to attend the funeral of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Woods, who died suddenly from the effect of an inward tumor.

BIGAMIST GETS LONG SENTENCE

Riverhead, N. Y., May 6.—Herbert Leigh-Manuel, organist and music teacher, was sentenced to serve from two years and five months to four years and ten months in Sing Sing prison by County Judge George E. Egan today.

Leigh-Manuel pleaded guilty to bigamy on an indictment charging that he committed bigamy last December when he married Miss Martha Van Weyen, a former pupil at the Marble Collegiate church, in New York, with his own wife as a witness.

Judge Egan asserted that Leigh-Manuel should have protected the 19-year-old girl. He declared he would have given the defendant life if it were possible.

Salem High Finishes Eleventh In Carnegie Tech Field Meet

Red And Black Scores 8.2 Points; Scott High Of Toledo Wins Easily

Toledo Scott established a new scoring record for the annual Carnegie Tech tri-state interscholastic meet, piling up 29 points to easily annex first honors at the event at Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon.

At the same time as the Toledoans were amassing this record-breaking majority, Salem High tracksters, invading the Tech field 20 strong, returned home with the wee collection of 8.2 points, the smallest ever registered by a Red and Black aggregation in years at any affair featuring events of the thin-clad variety.

Coach Springer's proteges finished eleventh in the running, but did fairly well at that, competing against a picked collection of athletes from Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, and a small representation from Maryland and New York. Salem contenders placed in finals of four events, and gave a good account of themselves in competition in all others in which they were entered.

Salem Marks Good

Ed Sidinger's heave of the javelin, 164 ft. 8 in., would have won in many meets, but it only netted the Salem High 12-letterman a third; Harold Walker raced the mile in 4 min. 47.1 sec. and placed fourth; Bob Van Blaricom twirled the discus 110 ft. and captured a third. Marks by Salemites as a whole were good, it was just that others, and there were more than 1,000 contending for honors, were just so much more excellent.

The much-heralded Steubenville High outfit, which some time ago annihilated Geneva College, finished far below Salem, with three points; Youngstown South, despite the presence of the fleet Freddie Evereth, garnered only a single counter; Buffalo, N. Y., East High Jamestown, N. Y., Altoona, New Castle, Pittsburgh Schenley and Fifth Avenue, and 15 other schools found themselves located closer to the bottom in point-scoring than the Springmen.

Monongahela City, Pa., was second with 13½ points, while South Brownsville's flashy tracksters, who last year won the affair, were third with 11. Grove City, Toledo Libbey, State College, Beaver Falls, New Castle, and Frederick, Md., outscored Salem.

Hutchinson Qualifies In 100

Hutchinson, speedy Salem dasher, started things off in the Salem way, finishing second in his preliminary heat of the 100, which was won at 10.8, but in the semi-finals, was eliminated in a heat which tied the meet record, Simcox, of Altoona, winning. Carter, Schenley's "flying cloud" took the finals in 10.4, Willey, Libbey, being the only Ohio runner to get a place.

Freddie Evereth was forced out in a preliminary heat, finishing second behind Parnham, of Schenley, who won it in slow time of 11-flat. Bell Sauer, Akron South, one of the favorites to win the event, won his first heat in 10.6 but lost out in the semi-finals.

Henry Reese broke the tape in the preliminary heat of the 120 yd. low hurdles, far ahead of the rest of the field, being clocked at 15 sec. He placed second, inches behind Robinson, of Schenley, in the semi-finals, but for some reason or other, was not given a chance in the finals. Robinson finished third in the finals, Scott, Salem, was eliminated in his first prelim race.

Scott Eliminated

Scott came back fairly strong in the high sticks, however, getting a second place in his prelim event, but only got fourth in the semi-finals. Neither of these races were won as fast as the Salem lad has been clocked in, the finals being won at 17, a time which he has equalled twice.

Salem had no entries in the 220, 250, or half mile. Sauer took first in a heat of the quarter-mile, but ran much slower than usual, finishing in 54.4. In the finals, he drew a back position, in a field of 20 entrants, but worked his way to third in the final 20 feet, and looked like easily the best.

Walker Fourth In Mile

Walker drew position No. 18 in the third heat of the mile, and ran past everyone but England, of State College, Pa., and was forced into second position for the entire distance. The two lads ran the nicest distance race of the day, England stretching his lead in the last 50 feet, to finish 15 feet ahead of Walker. Five winners were clocked in each heat, Walker being given fourth best time.

Jackson, Salem entrant in the broad jump was eliminated early in the contest, which was won by Sebastian, of Sharon, with a leap of 21 ft. 2 in. Ed Beck and Heston both missed in the pole vault on 10 ft. but made it on their third trial, but went out for good at 11 ft. for a tie for fourth. They were also entered in the high jump but were forced out at 5 ft. 5 in.

Miller and Coy, a pair of vaulters whom Springer is trying to develop for coming seasons, missed at 10 ft.

Sidinger Places

Ed Sidinger got out several heaves around 160 ft. in the javelin, but Dunn a husky Grove City, Pa., lad tossed the spear 172 ft. 6 in. for a new record, and Beggs, Aliquippa, Pa., heaving it 169 ft. for second place. Sidinger has improved his mark about four feet every meet, and looks good for about 170 at the county meet Saturday.

Bob Van Blaricom, with a heave of 109 ft. 9 in. took fourth in the discus, Bill Smith dropping out in the semi-finals, after he was unable to get one out over 106 ft. Ray Smith was also forced out in the prelims.

With seven hefty athletes putting the shot over 42 feet, John Terry had little chance to break into the scoring, and joined the army of Red and Black thin-clads, eliminated in their first attempts in their events.

Iowa City, Iowa—Theta, canine mascot of the University of Iowa school of journalism, has given student reporters a news story. Theta's five sons, all news hounds, were born recently in the "hell-box" at the printing plant. Students named them: Who, What, When, Where and Why, elements, supposed to be contained in every news story.

Legislators of Ohio have taken more action in fish, game and outdoor matters of Ohio in the last session than at any time since laws governing fish and game have been written on the statute books of the Buckeye state.

Perhaps the most important bit of lawmaking was the bill which passed both houses and created the conservation department. This measure removes from the department of agriculture the fish and game division and places the supervision of fish, game, lakes and all conservation matters of the outdoors into the hands of the new department. Its recognition has not been within Ohio alone, as the national convention of the Izaak Walton League of America went on record as favoring the action of Ohio legislators.

One of the rather surprising pieces of legislation was the change in the squirrel law. Squirrels were protected under laws in each odd numbered year in the state of Ohio and through that law were given a respite from hunters' guns in 1927. So 1928 was open and 1929 also will be as the laws now permit hunting each year during the last two weeks in September.

The special coon season in a number of counties, including Columbiana, was stricken from the books and the season now opens at the same time all over the state.

We should see great progress in fish and game administration and the propagation of fish and game in the state in the next few years. Undoubtedly the power behind the fish and game laws was the organizations of outdoorsmen who rapped loudly at candidates' doors after a half decade of preliminary work. If you were a member of one of these groups and took part in the work they completed, you can feel highly gratified. If not, you owe them a debt of gratitude and should enlist in the ranks of some such body.

Fishing Laws

We all know that bass season is closed (at least we should) but do not forget that in the state of Ohio there is special legislation on the statutes that affect seining for minnows at the same time. If the creek that you are seining is over 12 feet wide for a distance of 50 yards above or below the point seined, you are breaking the law. This is in order to protect the nests of fish spawning along the streams during this period.

Your seine must not be over four feet in depth and not over eight feet in length and you must not have over 100 minnows in your possession at one time, unless you are a dealer and paying a dealer's license fee. This applies to minnows either alive or otherwise.

Walsh Sees Yankee Defeat In England Possible

By DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, May 6. — England's great chance to reclaim at least in part "the glory that was Rome's" will come to it on the wind-whipped dunes of Muirfield next week, with the holding of the annual British open golf championship. This once was an institution as Anglican as the bank of England and, up to 1921, the hand of no infidel as much as caressed a huddle of the championship cup.

So much for British tradition. It runs for Mrs. Sweeney's husband today. Seven of the last eight open titles have been won by Americans. The present have been successive and altogether the American triumph in England, once a hat-throwing episode, is now a bromide.

I think the smug complacency of American golf is in for a jolt next week.

We have mustered the man-power of our professional golf at Muirfield, probably the strongest team America yet has sponsored. But golf is the great lottery of sport. We have drawn the winning number in 1921, 1922, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927 and 1928 partly because we were lucky and mostly because we were too good. But the best man doesn't always win. Skill must synchronize with luck and I can't see how we can expect the combination to click for us indefinitely.

How to Get the Most Out of 4784 Pounds of Food

THE average American family cooks 4,784 pounds of food a year—more than 13 pounds, on the average, each day.

That is the housewife's most important job. When she calls Electric Cookery to her aid she does that job most efficiently and with greatest satisfaction to every member of the family, for . . .

ELECTRIC COOKERY SAVES FOOD. Meats shrink eight to ten per cent. less than in any other method of cooking. Vegetables and other foods shrink much less. You eat all you buy.

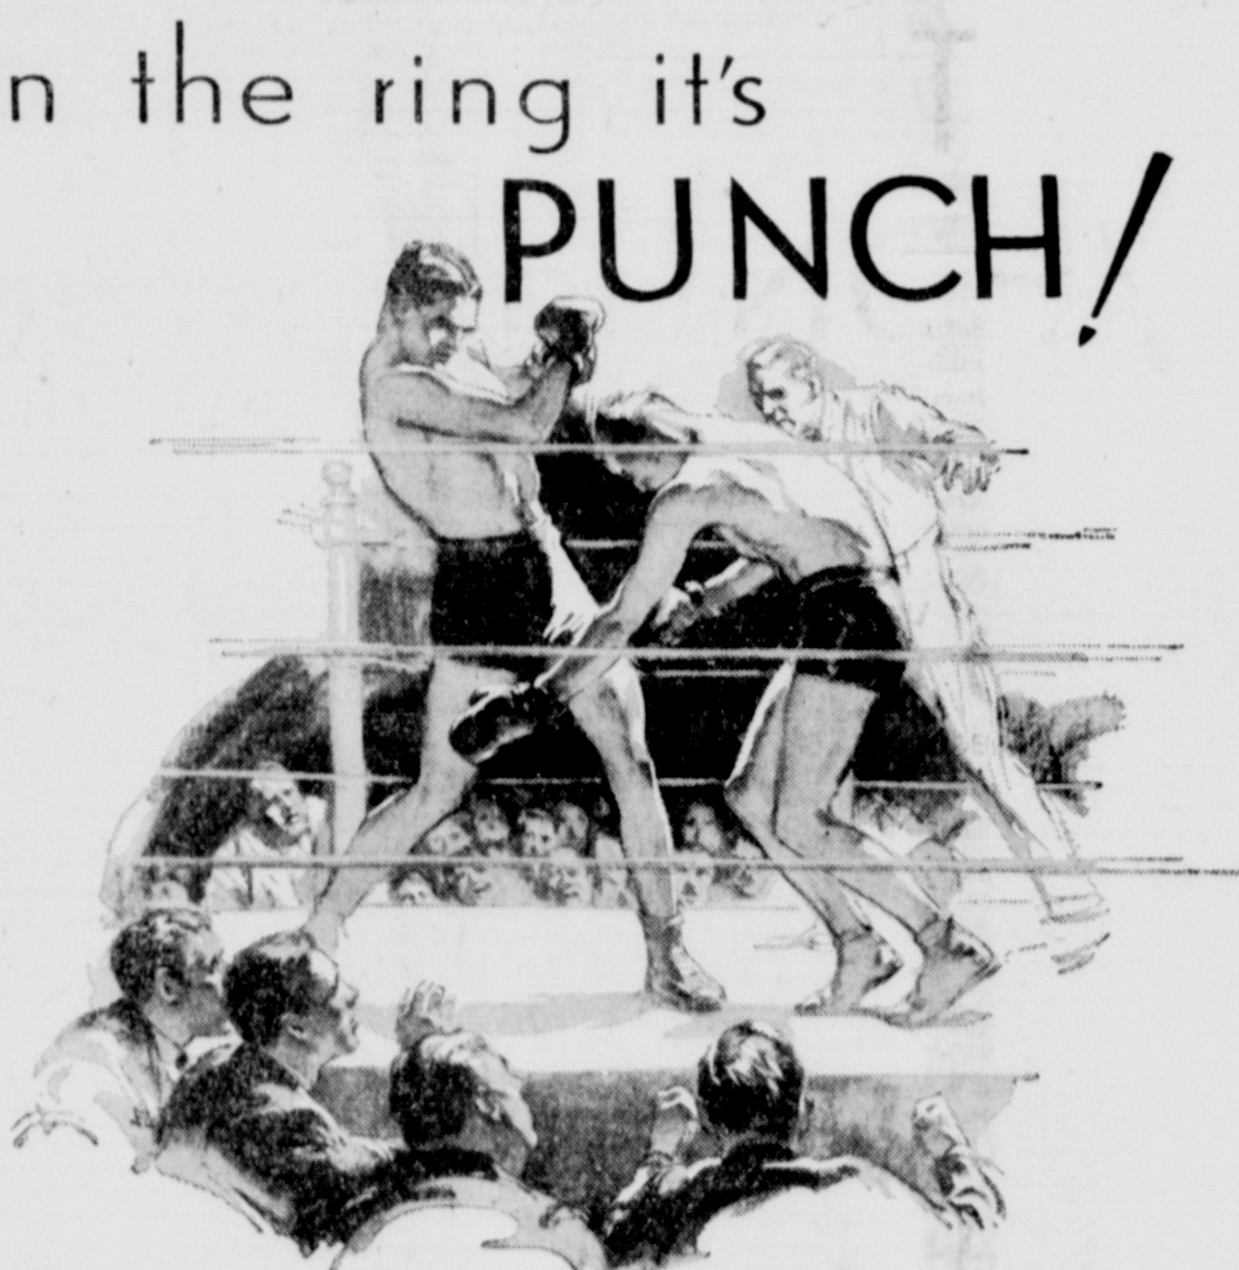

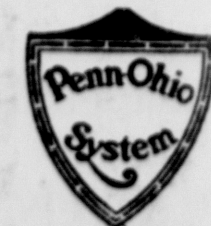

ELECTRIC COOKERY RETAINS FLAVOR. Meat and vegetable juices evaporate ever so little. All the vitamins, all the food value, all the flavor are retained by Electric Cookery.
